

WHAT TO EAT AT RIVERFEST

IDAHO FALLS – JUNE 13, 2017 – From Teriyaki bowls and cinnamon rolls to snow cones and smoothies – there will be something delicious for everyone at the Mountain View Hospital Riverfest 4th of July celebration.

Over 20 vendors will be selling tasty treats and scrumptious meals to families who plan to spend their Independence Day at Snake River Landing with the biggest and best festival east Idaho has to offer.

“You better come hungry because you will have so many good options for lunch, dinner, snacks and treats,” said Bill Fuerst, Riverbend Communications General Manager. “We’re proud that all of these vendors are local, so when you’re enjoying your meal, you’re also supporting small businesses and the economy.”

The following vendors will be represented during the Mountain View Hospital Riverfest:

- Greeks Gyro’s – gyros
- Wade Enterprises – shaved ice
- Jamba Juice – smoothies
- Reed’s Dairy – ice cream and cheese curds
