

RIVERBEND COMMUNICATIONS ANNOUNCES ENTERTAINMENT LINEUP FOR THE MOUNTAIN VIEW HOSPITAL RIVERFEST 4TH OF JULY CELEBRATION

IDAHO FALLS – JUNE 1, 2017 – Seven talented local bands from a variety of musical genres will take the Teton Toyota Stage at the Mountain View Hospital Riverfest 4th of July celebration.

The musical acts will perform throughout the day at the beautiful Snake River Landing. Mountain View Hospital Riverfest visitors will enjoy the impressive music as they celebrate Independence Day.

"It's the biggest party in Idaho on the 4th," said Mike Nelson, Riverbend Communications Operations Manager. "We have ten hours of epic music entertainment lined up and it's absolutely free. Everybody wants to be at Snake River Landing for the 4th of July, bands included."

Here is a list of the performers:

- 11:45 a.m. The Voltz A classic rock band from Arco and Idaho Falls. Young musicians who play classic covers and their own original songs.
- 1:00 p.m. Joe and Jacie Sites Nine-time national fiddle champion and grand master fiddle champion.
- 2:25 p.m. DLR Rowdy, stomp your feet, clap your hands, shout to the sky rock radio hits revisited in their own unique way.
- 3:45 p.m. Buster Brown Contemporary Gospel with a soulful, folky sound.
- 5:00 p.m. Clint King Building momentum as a singer/songwriter who continues the tradition of country music at its best with a voice that is nothing but his own.
- 6:25 p.m. McMurphy Brothers & Co. An American Band out of Idaho Falls. The brothers grew up playing music together and are still carrying on the tradition.
- 7:45 p.m. The Opskamatrists Upbeat, energetic, ska/reggae/punk band from southeast Idaho that's guaranteed to entertain.

Specific details about parking, traffic flow, vendors and other information will be released in the coming days to local media and on the Riverfest Facebook page.
